June 8, 2017: FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Looking for that perfect summer camp for your budding thespian? Check out Clear Space Theatre's Musical Theatre Summer Stock Intensives and Acting Intensive! This unique summer camp is designed to give campers a glimpse of life in a professional theater, as they experience a rehearsal and production process that mimics Clear Space's own summer repertory season.

Katina Bell, parent of returning camper Adrianna Powell, shared her enthusiasm for the Clear Space Intensives: "Adrianna discovered her passion for the arts at her elementary school, H.O. Brittingham, where Clear Space is a community partner with the arts program. Clear Space personnel encouraged me to enroll Adrianna in the Summer Intensive program – and I'm so glad I did! Adrianna has grown tremendously through her participation in the program; the Intensives nurtured and encouraged her passion, providing her with opportunities and experiences we never dreamed of."

Campers at each Intensive spend a full week singing, acting and dancing in a production that culminates in two performances on the last day of camp each week. Intensives are led by David Button, Clear Space Theatre's Artistic Director; instructors include professional performers and educators.

Each week of camp – and each production - is designed for specific grade levels: 101 DALMATIANS for grade 1-3 campers (July 10-14); THE LION KING EXPERIENCE for grade 4-6 campers (July 17-21); and HIGH SCHOOL MUSICAL for grade 7-12 campers (July 31-August 11). A fourth week of Summer Stock Intensive camp – August 7-11 – spans grade levels and will culminate in a production of HAIRSPRAY. Participation in HAIRSPRAY requires the recommendation of a current Clear Space Arts Instructor and an audition.

The Acting Intensive, which focuses on acting technique and dramatic study, will include instruction in body awareness and physicality, voice, basic acting technique and working as an ensemble. The Acting Intensive will be held July 24-28, and includes campers of all grade levels; campers will produce the children's theatre folk and fairy tale patchwork piece, WITCHES, BRITCHES, RINGS 'N THINGS.

All Summer Intensives are held from 8:45 am till 4:30 pm each day at Clear Space Theatre's air conditioned, conveniently-located downtown Rehoboth Beach location. Children will remain on Clear Space Theatre property throughout the camp day.

Tuition for each Intensive is $375, and covers: High-quality, professional instruction; tailored vocal arrangements and age-appropriate curricula; camp T-shirt and materials; and one student ticket to that camp week's Wednesday Clear Space Summer Repertory performance and a 20% discount for additional family member tickets to that performance.
