June 22, 2017: FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Clear Space Offers Free Friday Performances July 14 – August 11

So – it's mid-day on a Friday at the beach: You're a little crisped around the edges and the sand has overtaken the cooler – and car. You're looking for something different that's conveniently located, entertaining and – fingers crossed! – air conditioned. Well, you're in luck: Clear Space Theatre has just the thing!

On five consecutive July / August Fridays, Clear Space will be offering an 11:00 am free performance, featuring the campers participating in each week's Summer Intensive program. Come see Clear Space's campers as they dance, sing and act their way through a musical or play structured just for them, but also providing an authentic sense of what it's like to be part of a full-scale theatre production.

Performances begin Friday, July 14 with 101 DALMATIANS (grades 1-3); then continue July 21, with THE LION KING EXPERIENCE (grades 4-6); July 28, WITCHES BRITCHES RINGS & THINGS (acting camp – all grades); August 4, HIGH SCHOOL MUSICAL (grades 7-12); and conclude August 11 with HAIRSPRAY (all grades, by audition only). Each performance runs about one hour, concluding just in time for you to browse the boardwalk for lunch!

Says Clear Space's Artistic Director, David Button, "Our campers produce amazing performances, each year surprising even me with what they're able to accomplish in just five days' time. They work incredibly hard – and have an incredible amount of fun doing it! These intensives not only provide our campers with performance experience, but also offer our audiences a glimpse of the next generation of singers, dancers and actors – talk about a win:win!"
